About Santa Barbara Fiduciary

My grandmother was my best friend, my mentor, and my rock. She has been an inspiration to me throughout my entire life. She carried herself with dignity, strength, and class. She moved through social circles with commanding power, grace, and elegance. Though she was not an easy person to please, there was no better feeling in the world than earning her respect.

The unspoken bond I had with my grandmother became a serious commitment and challenging passage into the unknown as her health declined. The challenges I faced and lessons I learned, became the foundation for Santa Barbara Fiduciary. Santa Barbara Fiduciary is my calling and was my grandmother's parting gift to me.
